Preamble

The Payroll Tax Act 2011 (the Act), which commenced on 1 July 2011, rewrites the Payroll Tax Act 1987 (the 1987 Act) and harmonises the payroll tax legislation in the Australian jurisdictions.

1. The Act imposes a liability to ACT payroll tax on an employer for any wages paid or payable by the employer for services rendered or performed in, or partly in, the ACT.
2. Under schedule 2, part 2.3 of the Act wages paid or payable by an employment agent to a subcontractor are exempt wages in the hands of an employment agent, provided the subcontractor can demonstrate that it is a bona fide employer in its own right.

Note - The exemption regime commenced on 6 May 1999. For contracts entered into by an employment agent prior to 6 May 1999 where the terms of the contract were reliant upon the previous exemption regime and evidenced in writing, the contract remains subject to the previous exemption regime for the term of that contract or until 30 June 2000, whichever occurs first.

Circular

3. This circular is to assist employment agents to determine the application of the exemption provisions on their own payroll tax liability.

Exemptions under schedule 2, part 2.3 of the Act

4. Schedule 2, part 2.3 of the Act provides a payroll tax exemption for wages paid or payable by an employment agent to a person (the subcontractor) under a contract between the agent and the subcontractor for work performed by the subcontractor for a client of the agent in any of the following cases:

- (a) the subcontractor also supplies goods to the client under the contract and the wages amount to less than 50% of the value of the consideration paid or payable by the agent to the subcontractor for services and goods supplied to that client;
- (b) the services provided by the subcontractor to the client are of a kind not ordinarily required by the employment agent and the subcontractor ordinarily renders services of that kind to the public generally;
- (c) the subcontractor is a body corporate and individuals of both the following kinds perform the work for which the wages are paid or payable:
 - (i) a director or shareholder of the body;
 - (ii) an employee of the body who is not a director or shareholder;
- (d) the subcontractor is a partnership and individuals of both the following kinds perform the work for which the wages are paid or payable:
 - (i) a partner;
 - (ii) an employee of the partnership;
- (e) the subcontractor is a sole trader and individuals of both of the following kinds perform the work for which the wages are paid or payable:
 - (i) the subcontractor;
 - (ii) an employee of the subcontractor;
- (f) the individuals who perform the work for which the wages are paid or payable together work for not more than 8 days in any month under a contract with the agent;

Documentation for wages exempted under schedule 2 part 2.3

8. Payroll tax is a self-assessed tax. It is the employment agent's responsibility to determine the liability, or otherwise, of the arrangements made with their subcontractors under schedule 2, part 2.3. The employment agent must also retain relevant documentation for exempt wages paid to subcontractors.
